Report of Committee on Home and Foreign Missions was called for.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON HOME AND FOREIGN MISSIONS.

We, your Committee on Missions, feeling the great importance of the subject assigned to us, after prayer, respectfully desire to submit the following report:

The spread of the gospel to all the world is the sacred trust given to the Church by its Great Head, and the spread of this glorious latter rain Pentecostal gospel is the particular work to which we as members of The Pentecostal Holiness Church are voluntarily committed. These are truly the latter days, and it becomes us as partakers of the grace of Christ to do all we can to spread His name to the uttermost parts of the earth. We must remember that we ourselves are the children of the converts of foreign missionaries, and gratitude, as well as God's command, should impel us to this work.

There are vast districts in our own land without any true gospel, and these regions at our doors call for help. Then there are the millions of other nations, yet in heathen darkness. Truly these things should cause us to be and do all we can for God. To facilitate this work of spreading the gospel, we would suggest:

1. That our people learn what is the spiritual state of the territorities surrounding their churches, and as far as may be, the conditions existing in other nations. We must know something of the condition of people before we can intelligently pray for them and carry a burden for their salvation. Often opportunities for doing good near home are missed because we do not take time to learn about them.

Then we must know about our missionaries, and their difficulties and successes, in order to properly appreciate their work.

2. That our people make it a habit to regularly and daily pray for foreign missions. Prayer is the key to spiritual success, and the way to get interested in missions is to pray for them.

3. Then we urge all our people to systematically give to missions. Many give a sum at one time and then neglect to give more for some time, forgetting that the missionaries' expenses are going on all the time. Regular, systematic giving is the best and most Scriptural way to care for mission work. It is the duty of all our pastors to see that missionary societies are organized in their churches and carried on in an interesting and profitable way.

Respectfully submitted,

W. B. GODWIN,
J. H. SUTTON,
H. C. KING,

Committee.

Report adopted.

At this point the report of the General Treasurer was read. (See report.)

Bros. A. E. Robinson, W. A. Gurgainus and others spoke on missions.

Report of Committee on Sunday Schools called for.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON SUNDAY SCHOOLS.

We, your Committee on Sunday Schools, beg to submit the following report:

In history, as we can view it, we can see one of the greatest factors of laying a good foundation for a prosperous church and many spiritual blessings to the church and also to the community, is the Sunday school.

The Sunday school is the place to instil in the hearts of the children the precious truth of God's Word, which is the best foundation to build the Christian character.

The Sunday school, apart from the church, is a gold mine and a storehouse in itself, from whence we can acquire spiritual and moral wealth.

We suggest that all of our pastors secure the best officers and teachers possible, and to instruct them to attend every Sunday they can.

We believe our Sunday schools will die if the officers and teachers lose interest and fail to attend.

Let us see that our schools have the proper literature; that which is in harmony with our discipline. We very highly recommend that published by Rev. G. F. Taylor, of Royston, Ga.

Let us have our schools to meet at an hour that will not conflict with other religious bodies.

We recommend that each quarterly conference have a Sunday School Convention once a year, to keep the zeal of the Sunday School in a good condition.

We suggest that our Sunday schools appoint a committee, composed of one or more members of each class, the duty of which is to encourage all they can to attend the Sunday school.

We also suggest that our Sunday schools appoint a Committee of Order, to see that good order is maintained, and each visitor is treated with the proper courtesy.

We further recommend that a collection be taken once a month for orphanage work, and also once a month for foreign missions.

Respectfully submitted,

J. B. Williams,
N. I. Spence,
Oakley E. Croy,
Committee.

Report approved and adopted.

Report of Committee on Literature called for.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON LITERATURE.

The world is flooded with literature of every kind, especially that which is harmful. It is very evident that evil literature is everywhere prevalent, and put within easy reach of all; therefore we should do all in our power to place good literature in the hands of our people. We should not only consider it our duty to engage in the promulgation of truth and good reading matter, but we should do all possible to discourage the reading of evil literature and the circulation of the same. The newspapers are being filled with false doctrines under a guise of truth. We should beware of the literature circulated by the sects spoken of in our discipline, such as Russellism, Adventism, Christian Science, Mormonism, literature of "Finished Work," so-called Church of God, and the like.

We as a committee endorse and call special attention to certain literature that we ought to read. We should read the Bible more than ever before. Let us not be satisfied unless we read it through at least once the coming year, also study it carefully, and prayerfully, each day. We should make a special effort to get in our possession those books written by our preachers and others and advertised in The Advocate.

Our holiness papers should not only be subscribed for, but read systematically and thoroughly. The Pentecostal Holiness Advocate, The Apostolic Evangel and The Way of Faith are worthy of our consideration and support. All literature that is in harmony with God's Word should be put within reach of all.

The church depends upon our young people, therefore let us take care that they, especially, be protected from the influences of evil literature. It is true that they will read something, and let us take care that they are supplied with the right kind. "The men who read are men who lead" is a true saying. Therefore the necessity for an increased circulation of Pentecostal holiness literature, that we may know the truth and be led aright. The Holy Spirit teaches only those who are willing to learn and who strive to help themselves.

Respectfully submitted,

J. H. MASHBURN,
D. T. JOHNSON,
A. C. HOLLAND,
Committee.

Report adopted.

Report of Committee on Education called for.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON EDUCATION.

Since we are living in the day of reconstruction, the war being over, and everything normal again, opportunities being greater then ever before, it is our duty to take advantage of them to a greater extent than ever before. Especially is this true along educational lines. We understand that education is not the most important thing in the world, but we can not afford to discount its value when we view it according to the true meaning.

Although we can not endorse all the agencies and facilities of modern education, yet we can not ignore and disregard the essential and good that is in mental training. We know that ignorance has the power to limit one's usefulness, and to handicap us not only in a temporal way, but spiritually as well. It is true that we must not discountenance any one on account of their ignorance when circumstances have been against their acquisition of an education. The Lord has used many unlearned men, but we find in the Bible that three of the greatest men of all ages, Moses, Daniel and Paul, were learned with all the learning of the age in which they lived. And for the encouragement of all young Christians, we might recall the words of the great apostle to Timothy, " Study to show thyself approved unto God, a workman that needeth not to be ashamed, rightly dividing the word of truth."

Now, we believe that man is a trinity, and believing this, we should encourage physical, mental and spiritual training. Since this is true, we should strive for the ideal or true education, which is Christian education under Pentecostal holiness influences. It is gratifying to note the progress that we have made, but there is much room for improvement. A good step has been made in many communities, by establishing local independent schools with Pentecostal teachers.

We should recognize educational agencies already in our midst, and do all in our power to encourage our young people to attend them. The Pentecostal holiness people should patronize the school that has been established at Franklin Springs, Ga., for the whole church; Falcon Holiness School, Falcon, N. C., within the bounds of this conference; Holmes Missionary and Bible Training Institute, Greenville, S. C., in the South Carolina Conference, should receive our consideration and support.

Since there are many of our young people who are not financially able to pay all of their expenses, the church should take steps to assist them. We recommend that this conference pass a resolution requesting the General Conference to establish an educational fund for the purpose of helping our young people who are preparing for the work of the Lord.

We know that education is not the first requirement, but let us see to it that our workers are not handicapped by lack of training, but made more efficient by having these advantages.

Respectfully submitted,

A. C. Holland,
A. H. Butler,
Jerome Hodges.

Committee.

Report adopted. At this point a fund was started by free-will offerings for the purpose mentioned in report. $65.00 was raised.

Report of Committee on Public Morals called for.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON PUBLIC MORALS.

We, your Committee on Public Morals, consider that certain sins exist in our nation that God's people should have no dealings with, such as shows of all descriptions, strong drink, immodest apparel, such as low necks, short sleeves, short skirts, jewelry, feathers, flowers, shadow dresses, and all immodest dress. Also foolish talking, jesting, backbiting, undue and improper desire for leadership, slackness of duty, the sins of omission — failing to do what God has called us to do. We also ask our holiness people to abstain from fornication, adultery, criminal abortion, divorce, trickery and schemery in trading for gain. Also raising, curing or handling tobacco in any shape or form; also any kind of work that is connected with the raising or selling this defiling weed.

We consider that all these are prevailing sins of the age, therefore, Be it Resolved,

1. That we seek to maintain a chaste and virtuous relation to Almighty God, by refusing to affiliate with anything that has the appearance of sin.

2. That all the members of this conference conduct themselves in such a way that the outside world may see the humble life of Jesus in everyday life.

3. That united effort in prayers and services to God be the motto of this coming year of every preacher and delegate, having as an ideal the perfect and complete life of Jesus, who has triumphed over sin, death, hell and the grave, and conquered all immoralities.

Respectfully submitted,
A. B. KANIPE,
M. S. PARAMORE,
W. A. GURGAINUS,
Committee.
